

NO = No More Business As Usual

The following quote was in an article I read this morning.

“I think, put your legal head on for a second, that universities are gonna be in big trouble for having mandated young people to get that vaccine because people are gonna get sick, they’re gonna have long-term consequences and they should sue those schools for having forced them to take a medical intervention. 100% they should sue,” Dr. Drew told Kelly.

Every institution, every employer, every person who mandated these killer vaccines will be held accountable . The result of this will bring down society. I am sure this was part of the plan.

They want all companies to go broke, they want politicians hung in the streets, they want all our cities brought to rubble.

Their motto is order out of chaos.

They want us brought to rubble because they are aware the masses will eventually learn we do not need them at all. In fact we would be a lot better off without them.

We do not need them, we have a society that if they just fucked off would get along just fine.

They know we would do a lot better without them, so they must bring us down to stay in power. They want to destroy the society we have all built so we have nothing to stand up against them with.

And they don’t care at all if we “we will be happy”.

They want the lies to come out so we hang those responsible for the vaccine genocide and pointless wars of profit that further the depopulation agenda.

This why none of their nonsense makes any sense. They want it to be torn apart and destroyed, it fuels the fire of the masses when they are finally told the truth or learn the truth the hard way.

The silence of the stubbornly ignorant masses in their deranged minds gives them some form of consent to destroy the world and slaughter the innocent.

These willfully moronic will continue to further their own genocide by going along with the multi faceted global extermination agenda to the point of the fools that turn the keys of doom in unison.

They are all complicit and willing slaves to evil.

We are at war with evil. Good verses evil.

You are either with them or against them.

If you stand up, you need but one word to end this all.

NO.

All it will take to end all of this madness world wide, to end all suffering, all poverty, all wars, all control by the corrupt evil few is the word, NO.

The quoted article went on to say one solution to vaccine mandates is to get a fake card. This is the worst advice. It furthers the bullshit that is covid, it endorses their authority to ask for proof of vaccination and it puts the person directly in line for prosecution based upon fraud.

DO NOT LIE.

Instead say the truth.

NO.

No I am not vaccinated and NO I will not comply.

You stand with right and truth on your side.

All of our responses to all genocidal plots and control mandates based upon lies should be; NO.

Spoken by everyone, no more business as usual.

No I will not pick up that gun and shoot that guy over there for any reason.

No I will not protect the evil few, let them hang.

No I will not spray chemtrails again.

No I will not comply.

No I will not hurt anyone.

No I will not fly a drone into a school.

If every person took a good look at the world and said no, I will not comply, tyranny will end.

The solution is no more.

The solution is no more business as usual.

EVERY ONE TURN ON THEM NOW

NO ONE COMPLY

THIS ENDS

Armed with the truth, United we stand, The truth has set us free.

Do not comply,

Say NO.

Personally I say FUCK NO.

Below is a film I made in 2014. The concept is simple, there are many ways they are killing people and the only way out is a world wide revolution. No more business as usual, say NO.

WARNING: Global Extermination In Full Effect

Our 12th film is a big picture understanding of the plans that are being carried out around the world to kill the majority of the population. It has been called the great reset. Well there is nothing great about it. The global elite, nazi, satanic Khazarian mafia who have been running our world for thousands of years are currently carrying out plans to exterminate 95% of the worlds population. When you look at each way they are killing us daily, many feel there is no larger agenda. This film ties in all of the areas they are attacking us and shows if you look at the big picture for what it is, a global extermination plan, you will see the truth. The films provides solutions to this problem and explains what is necessary to stop this extermination process. Global Revolution.

Film Released 2014
